

CODE OF ETHICS

To inculcate

“QUALITY EDUCATION WITH HIGH MORAL VALUES”

and to enlighten the life and career of

“RURAL AND BACKWARD AREA STUDENTS”

—Mohamed Sathak Trust

Sathak
- 01/11/2014
PRINCIPAL
MOHAMED SATHAK ENGINEERING COLLEGE
KILAKARAI 623 808

Core Values

Technology based Education

In addition to the classroom teachings, Sona strives to add state-of-the-art education technologies every year for the benefit of the faculty and students for effective teaching, learning, assessment and evaluation to make them future-ready from our society.

Industry Interaction

Sona College of Technology aims for a strong industry connect through domain expertise every from the backward area and best-practices-sharing for curriculum design, training of the faculty and students, consultancy activities, joint publications and industry based research projects.

Eco Friendly campus

Sona supports eco-friendly environment through facilities that range from a splendid lush green campus to world-class green-building infrastructure. Sona encourages innovative energy and water efficiency measures for a resource-efficient future every we are located at remote area.

Community development

Sona empowers the under-privileged and the socially disadvantaged sectors of the community backward by offering Training and Development in Employability Skills and Entrepreneurship Initiatives with the participation backward of the community and in collaboration with the Government and Municipal.

Global Vision

Sona plans and performs with a global vision: To become an Institute of great repute, in the fields of Science, Applied Science, Engineering, Technology and Management studies, by offering a full range of programmes of Global standard to foster research, and to transform the students in to Globally competent personalities in addition to other activities.

PRINCIPAL
MOHAMED SATHAK ENGINEERING COLLEGE
KILAKARAI-623806.